

LAB ASSIGNMENT - 10

-> After Creating an Account in Amazon WebServices and setting up the Environment, create a new application.

Application Info
New Environment

Application Information

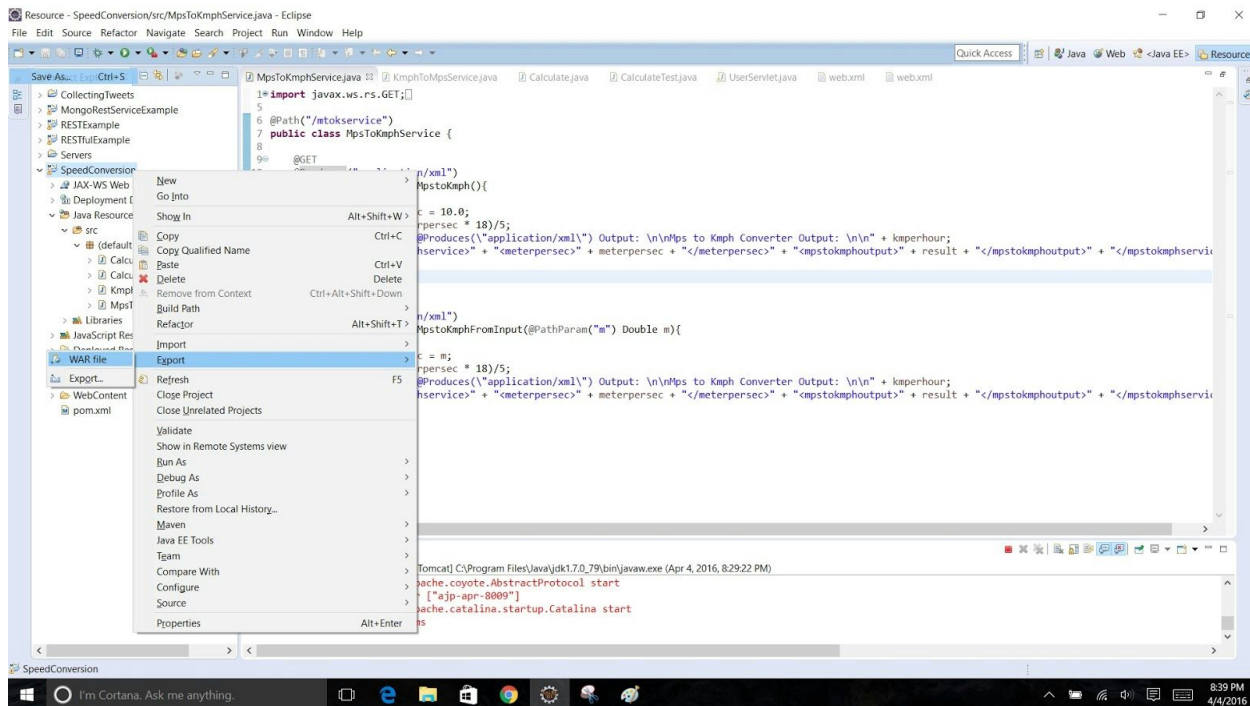

To create a new application, enter the details of your application.

Application name: Must be less than 100 characters and cannot contain a /

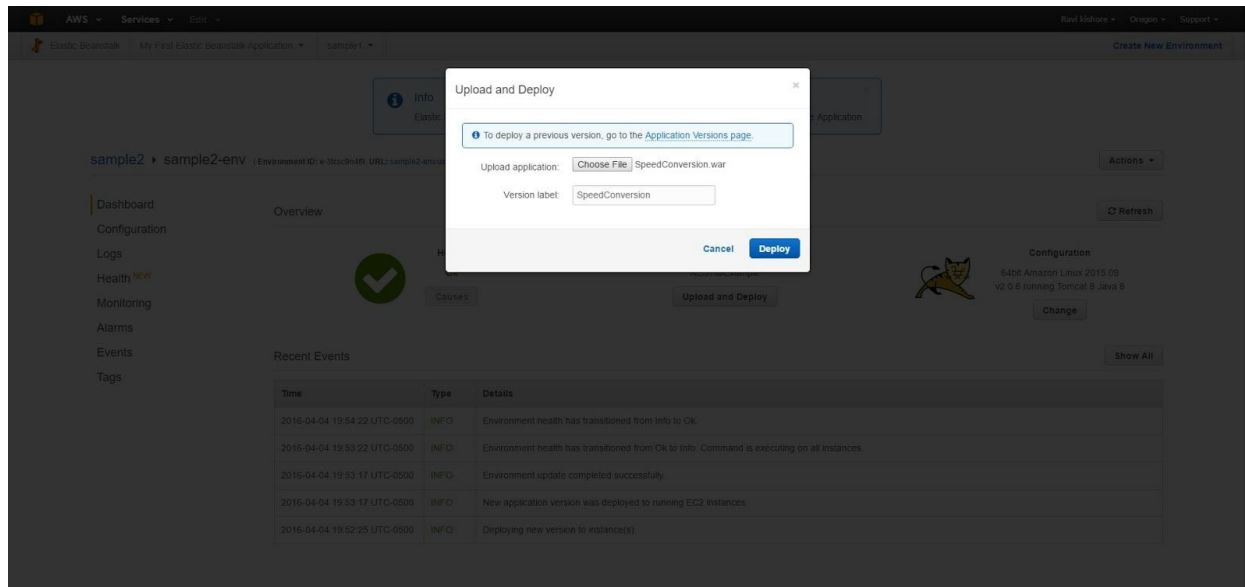

Description: Optional

Cancel Next

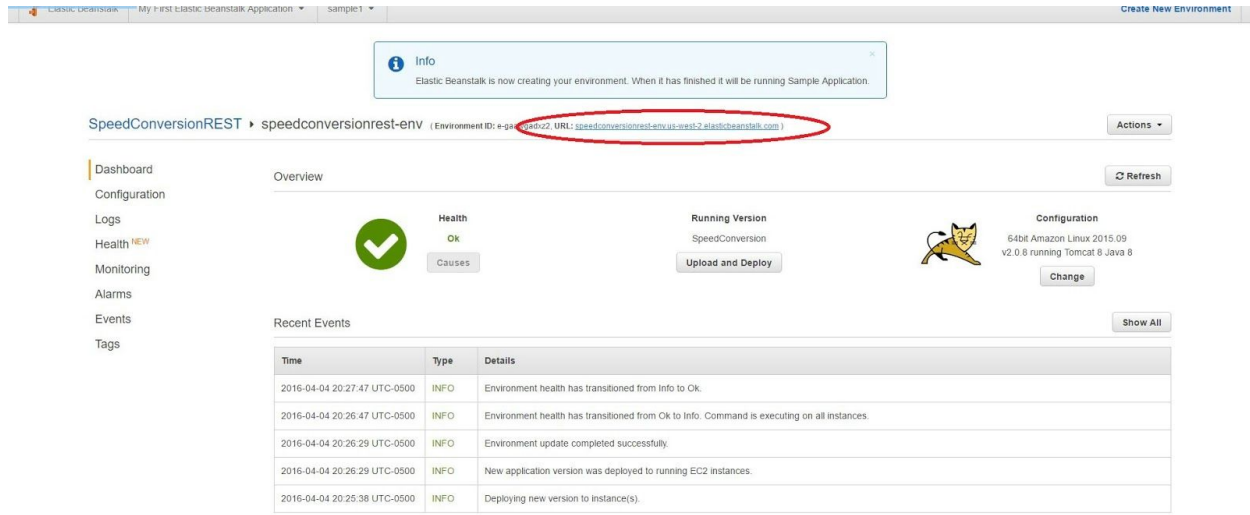

-> Before deploying open the source in the eclipse and export the project as a war file

-> Now click on the upload and deploy button after creating the application, select the war file that is exported in the above step

-> Click on the deploy and a URL is generated for the application

-> Copy that URL, attach the url pattern assigned to the service in the project and then run it in the browser

